

Spring 2020

The Olympic NEWS

And we are lovin' what it brings:

- Spring colors
- Warmer days
- New plantings
- The smell of fresh cut grass

How Olympic's operations are affected by the Covid-19 issues.

First and foremost, we are praying that all stay safe and healthy during these trying times! And we are hoping to get back to a 'normal' schedule as soon as possible.

Many landscape & irrigation, maintenance, and construction services fall into the category of 'essential' for the purposes of taking care of current Olympic customer needs.

These include:

- Emergency irrigation and mainline repairs 24/7.
- Irrigation start-ups and mainline repairs.
- Back flow assembly testing and repairs.
- Most landscape construction and maintenance that is deemed essential.

For all services and general operational protocol, we are practicing recommended guidelines such as social distancing, no-touch policies whenever possible, and continuous sanitation of surfaces exposed to potential virus contamination.

And, many of our employees are currently working from home, utilizing email, cell, and video conferencing communication with customers and fellow staff.

You can keep track of how and when our schedule and status changes by checking our website at olympiclandscape.com.

Color Spots

Always a delight, in any garden, are spots of color. This can be achieved by the planting of annuals, perennials, or evergreens like azaleas and rhododendrons. Another way to add a color punch is with pots, furniture or sculptures - very fun in a garden. Here's some color we've incorporated in our Home Show displays and customer projects we have installed.
